2020 ONTARIO BIKE SUMMIT

VIRTUAL | DECEMBER 1 - 3 | SHARETHEROAD.CA/OBS

SUMMIT SUMMARY

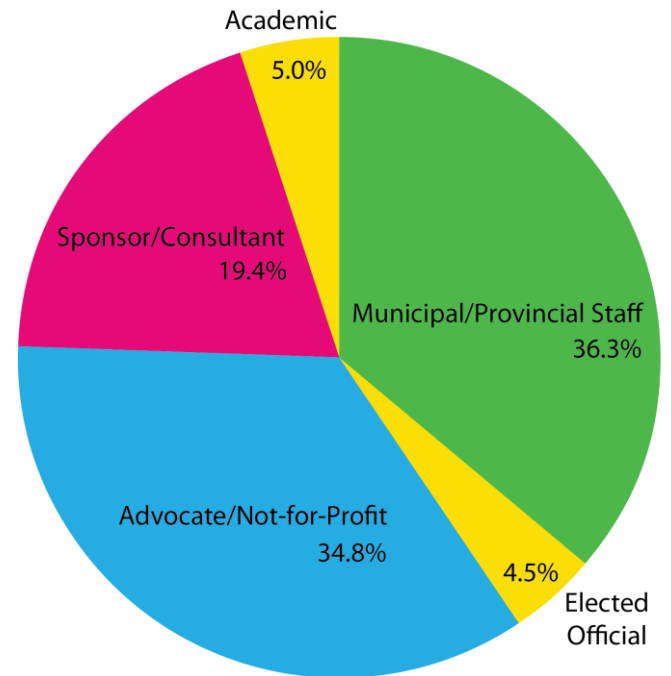

- 12th annual Ontario Bike Summit was attended by over 200 delegates
- First summit delivered virtually
- Almost 60 speakers shared their work and experiences on road safety, transportation equity, network planning, and more
- Opening remarks delivered by The Honourable Caroline Mulroney, Minister of Transportation
- 4 MPPs participated in a panel discussion and agreed to a re-energization of the Queen’s Park All Party Cycling Caucus

Professional Breakdown

I will recommend the Summit to my colleagues:

What worked well...

- Breadth of topics
- No overlapping sessions so didn't have to miss any content
- The virtual format made it more accessible/affordable for people from distant/remote communities to attend

"I am not a fan of an online conference but this conference was excellent."

Attendee Comment

Potential improvements...

- More content from smaller and northern/remote communities
- Less content overall (shorter summit, and less content per day)
- If virtual again, provide structured ways to network and interact, e.g., breakout rooms, social hours

Each year, Share the Road recognizes the incredible work of the cycling community with our Wheels of Change Awards. Nominated by their peers, award recipients are selected by Share the Road's Board of Directors and celebrated at the Ontario Bike Summit. In 2020, Share the Road distributed 3 awards.
